- (f) Although separate criteria are provided for the exemption of executive, administrative, and professional employees, those categories are not mutually exclusive. All exempt work, regardless of category, must be considered. The only restriction is that, when the requirements of one category are more stringent, the combination of exempt work must meet the more stringent requirements.
- (g) Failure to meet the criteria for exemption under what might appear to be the most appropriate criteria does not preclude exemption under another category. For example, an engineering technician who fails to meet the professional exemption criteria may be performing exempt administrative work, or an administrative officer who fails to meet the administrative criteria may be performing exempt executive work.
- (h) Although it is normally feasible and more convenient to identify the exemption category, this is not essential. An exemption may be based on a combination of functions, no one of which constitutes the primary duty, or the employee's primary duty may involve two categories which are intermingled and difficult to segregate. This does not preclude designating an employee FLSA exempt, provided the work as a whole clearly meets the other exemption criteria.
- (i) The designation of an employee as FLSA exempt or nonexempt ultimately rests on the duties actually performed by the employee.

§ 551.203 Exemption of General Schedule employees.

- (a) GS-4 or below. Any employee in a position properly classified at GS-4 or below (or the equivalent level in other comparable white-collar pay systems) is nonexempt, unless the employee is subject to the foreign exemption in §551.209.
- (b) GS-5 or above. Any employee in a position properly classified at GS-5 or above (or the equivalent level in other comparable white-collar pay systems) is exempt only if the employee is an executive, administrative, or professional employee as defined in this subpart, unless the employee is subject to $551.208 (the effect of performing temporary work or duties on FLSA exemption status) or §551.209 (the foreign exemption).

§ 551.204 Exemption of Federal Wage System employees.

- (a) Nonsupervisory. A nonsupervisory employee in the Federal Wage System or in other comparable wage systems is nonexempt, unless the employee is subject to §551.208 (the effect of performing temporary work or duties on FLSA exemption status) or §551.209 (the foreign exemption).
- (b) Supervisory. A supervisory employee in the Federal Wage System or in other comparable wage systems is exempt only if the employee is an executive employee as defined in §551.205, unless the employee is subject to $551.208 (the effect of performing temporary work or duties on FLSA exemption status) or §551.209 (the foreign exemption).

$\S 551.205$ Executive exemption criteria.

An executive employee is a supervisor or manager who manages a Federal agency or any subdivision thereof (including the lowest recognized organizational unit with a continuing function) and customarily and regularly directs the work of subordinate employees and meets both of the following criteria:

- (a) Primary duty test. The primary duty test is met if the employee—
- (1) Has authority to make personnel changes that include, but are not limited to, selecting, removing, advancing in pay, or promoting subordinate employees, or has authority to suggest or recommend such actions with particular consideration given to these suggestions and recommendations; and
- (2) Customarily and regularly exercises discretion and independent judgment in such activities as work planning and organization; work assignment, direction, review, and evaluation; and other aspects of management of subordinates, including personnel administration.
- (b) 80-percent test. In addition to the primary duty test that applies to all employees, the following employees must spend 80 percent or more of the worktime in a representative workweek on supervisory and closely related work to meet the 80-percent test:
